

A delegation of teachers from „Carol I” National Defense University will participate in an activity organized by the National Defense University of Astana, Kazakhstan on 18 – 25.05.2009.

The activity is part of the process of assistance offered to the National Defense University of Kazakhstan in the field of education and training in view of the implementation of education curricula in the field of logistics.

The issues to be approached are: organization of university studies at bachelor and master’s level; main logical aspects experienced by Romanian Armed Forces participating in theaters of operations in Iraq and Afghanistan.

The event will develop relations between „Carol I” National Defense University with similar higher education institutions and it is also expected to prove a useful experience exchange that will answer the interest and preoccupations of all participants.
