

„STRATEGIES FOR COOPERATION IN THE BLACK SEA AREA” SEMINAR

On Wednesday 27 May 2009 “Carol I” National Defense University hosted the international seminar “Strategies for Cooperation in the Black Sea Area” organized by the Center for Defense and Security Strategic Studies.

High officials from the Ministry of National Defense, military diplomats accredited to Bucharest, as well as researchers from military and civilian higher education institutions.

During this event, the 11th of its kind, hosted debates related to present and future concrete aspects of the Black Sea cooperation, the place and role of international and regional actors in the cooperation strategies, the influence of NATO and EU on the security environment, as well as processes that affect security in the Black Sea area.