

On 01 - 04.06.2009, a delegation from “Carol I” National Defense University headed by Air Flotilla General Florian Rapan PhD, the deputy commandant, will participate in the Conference of NATO – PfP Education and Training Institutions held in Norfolk, United States of America.

The event will bring together experts in education and training from NATO headquarters, excellence centers, PfP education and training centers and other representatives from NATO and partner countries in view of forging current relations and the transmission in a coherent manner of the message of transformation of the Alliance.

The agenda of the conference will also include the identification of education and training requirements and facilities.

“Carol I” National Defense University will be for the fifth time represented in a similar event and its delegates will be informed with regard to aspects, policies and directives of education and training, as well as the intention of the Allied Command for Transformation to develop future cycles of the Euro Atlantic Partnership Working Plan.