

On 08 May, 2009 „Carol I” National Defense University will receive a visit by a delegation of the Command College of the Second Army of Artillery and Strategic Racquets from People’s Republic of China.

The Chinese guests will be welcomed by the commandant and rector of „Carol I” National Defense University and will be briefed with regard to the organization of higher education in „Carol I” National Defense University and the perspectives of a future cooperation will be discussed.

This activity is part of the general framework of development of bilateral relations in the field of higher military education with People’s Republic of China.