

The Centre for Defence and Security Strategic Studies of „Carol I” National Defence University organizes on 19 – 20 November 2009 beginning with 09.00 the Annual Scientific Communications Session „Prospects of Defence and Security in Europe” with international participation in the Marble Hall of the Palace of the National Military Circle.

The event is part of a tradition established by the Centre for Defence and Security Strategic Studies of „Carol I” National Defence University and this year it aims to approach issues regarding the security process in the current global crises, the influence of space in the European defence and security, the importance of security institutions in a changing world.

Among participants, officials from the Romanian Armed Forces, Ministry of Education, Research and Youth, the Ministry of the Interior and Administration, Protection and Guard Service, Romanian Intelligence Service, teachers and researchers from military and civilian education and research institutions, representatives of non-governmental organizations, military diplomats accredited to Bucharest, representatives of the mass-media, as well as guests from countries like Luxemburg and Ukraine.

The activity is organized in cooperation with the Military Sciences Section of the Romanian Scientists Academy..

Journalists accredited by the Ministry of National Defence are expected to arrive at the Palace of the National Military Circle on Thursday, 19 November 2009, between 08.30 and 08.45. For other details and confirmation of participation, the point of contact will be Major Cristian Maciuceanu (mobile phone: 0744.69.63.72, office phone 021.319.48.67 ext. 481, 131, fax 021.319.48.66).