

“Carol I” National Defence University organizes on 15-16 April 2010 the 6th “Strategies XXI” Annual International Scientific Communications Session. The theme of the session was “European Security and Defence in the Context of the Economic-financial Crisis”.

The session will hold its plenary sessions at the seat of “Carol I” National Defence University beginning with 9 a.m. on 15 April 2010 and will be opened by the commandant and rector of “Carol I” National Defence University, lieutenant general Teodor Frunzeti PhD.

Security and defence, e-learning and educational software, management and education, military strategies, multinational operations, law, public, intercultural and influencing communication are only a few of the 13 sections of this scientific event that will bring together over 600 participants from 15 countries. 700 papers will constitute the framework for an active dialogue on the current issues of the security environment.

The activity will be attended by the Rector of the National Defence University of Brno, the Czech Republic, brigadier general Rudolf Urban PhD and by representatives of universities, research institutes from Romania, Germany, Austria, Czech Republic, high officials from the Ministry of National defence, Ministry of Education, Research, Youth and Sport, Ministry of Administration and Interior and defence attachés accredited to Romania

*
*   *

Already a tradition, the “Strategies XXI” Annual International Scientific Communications Session constituted along the years the adequate and generous framework to exchange ideas, express opinions and to bring to the attention of the public the most recent results of research in the fields connected to the contemporary military phenomenon.