

„Carol I” National Defence University will receive a visit of a delegation from the National Defence University of Pakistan on 26 – 30 April 2010.

The delegation will be briefed on the organization of higher military education, the main educational structures of the university, the cooperation with similar institutions from Romania and from abroad and the use of simulation techniques within command and staff education. The possibility of a future cooperation was also analyzed.