

FINANCIAL SOURCES AND BUDGET OF NDU "CAROL I"

National Defence University "Carol I" is a military superior education public institution, part of the national system of education, subordinated to the Minister of National Defence and coordinated by the State Secretary for Parliamentary Relations and Public Information.

NDU "Carol I", as a public institution of private law, is financed from the state budget, as well as from own sources.

The institution has its own budget as a part of the Minister of National Defence, being financed from chapter 65.01 - "Education".

The introduction of tuition fees for the public institutions personnel, other than those of defence, public order and national security, who will follow training forms such as master studies, postgraduate further training studies, as well as PhD studies and the qualifying of the institution based on Government Decision no. 576/2003, regarding the utilisation of tuition fees funds, making possible the financing of activities of own income.